DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed on 11/30/05 has been entered and made of record. Claims 1-2 are pending.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2 are not persuasive because they are based on the claims as amended to overcome the prior rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Okamoto et al (US 6,483,253).

For claim 1, Okamoto teaches an image reader which comprises: a lighting part having a fluorescent lamp which produces pulse emission by dielectric barrier discharge, and an inverter circuit which feeds the fluorescent lamp (fluorescent lamp 1; inverter circuit 3; Fig 1); a CCD line sensor which continuously receives reflection light reflected by a manuscript and emitted by the fluorescent lamp, time-divided (Column 6 Lines 35-53); and a controller which resets a divided image which is recognized by the CCD line sensor and which controls the timing of the start of recognition of a next divided image and moreover sends signals about this timing to the lighting part; wherein the controller, within an image recognition period in which the CCD line sensor recognizes a divided image of the manuscript, sends a flashing signal to the inverter which commands pulse emission of the fluorescent lamp with a frequency which directly corresponds to the frequency of the flashing signal in order to keep luminous quantities of the fluorescent lamp at a given value (Fig 1; Column 6 Lines 35-53; Column 7 Lines 4-29).

For claim 2, Okamoto teaches wherein the frequency of the flashing signal is controllable as a light control of the fluorescent lamp (Column 6 Lines 35-40).

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
